To Board Secretary
File number EB-2011-0004

Good afternoon,

Honeywell is interested in participating in the OEB's smart grid working group. We would like to nominate Jim Walsh who is the smart grid market manager for Honeywell Utility Solutions. In his role Jim is responsible for driving Honeywell's smart grid strategy which includes home energy management (HEM) in home displays (IHD) two way and auto demand response (ADR) for the residential, commercial and industrial sectors as well as PHEV and building automation solutions. Jim has an MBA from Clarkson University, as well as a BS in Business Administration from Saint Michael's College

Sincerely,

Peter Black
