Dear Ms. Walli:

Re: East-West Tie Transmitter Designation Process
EB-2011-0140

We enclose additional signed Declarations and Undertakings of Flavio Soares Parpinelli, Kenda Pollio, Anthony Ciccone, and Pablo de la Sierra Perez.

The Declaration and Undertaking from Mr. de la Sierra Perez has been modified to reflect the fact that he is neither counsel nor a consultant for Iccon; he is a director and officer of Iccon.

Mr. de la Sierra Perez requires access to the confidential redacted information contained in the documents produced by HONI and GLPT because Mr. de la Sierra Perez is the Iccon representative who is principally responsible for overseeing and managing Iccon's participation in this proceeding, including overseeing and managing the preparation of a transmission development plan. Mr. de la Sierra Perez requires access to the confidential information so that he may effectively coordinate and communicate with counsel and other Iccon team members and consultants in preparing Iccon's transmission development plan. The confidential information relates to scheduling, costs and project risks associated with expanding the East-West tie line. This information is critical to preparing a comprehensive transmission development plan that meets the Board's Filing Requirements.
