Dear Ms. Walli:

Re: Nomination to Energy Retailer Service Charges Working Group
EB-2015-0304

Veridian Connections Inc. ("Veridian") is pleased to nominate Ms. Kyle Brown, Veridian's Manager of Retailer Relations and Special Projects, to participate on the Energy Retailer Service Charges Working Group.

Relative Experience:

- Ensure Veridian's compliance with the Retail Settlement Code in relationship to the EBT system as well as compliance with the EBT Standards
- Key contact for Retailer matters including implementation and on-going maintenance of Service Agreements
- Responsible for the EBT transaction flow in CIS to/from Spoke/Hub
- Manage Retailers' accounts (AR/AP)
- Implement and train staff on any deregulated market updates or changes

Qualifications:

- Working in the industry since 1995
- Co-chair of Veridian's Market Readiness Committee (2001-2002)
- ASP for Gravenhurst Hydro's deregulated market operations (2002-2005)
- Member of the EBT Working Group since 2002
- Sat on sub-group committees for a number of Market Global Issues and for CIS enhancement of the Retailer Settlement Invoice financial process
- Co-Chair of Veridian's Market Operations Committee (2002-2004)

If selected to serve on the Working Group, Ms. Brown would represent Veridian. Veridian is an electricity distributor operating under Ontario Energy Board license number ED-2002-0503 and, therefore, has a direct interest in Energy Retailer Service Charges.

The power to make your community better.
