Dear Ms. Long,

RE: EB-2021-0118 Framework for Energy Innovation: Distributed Resources and Utility Incentives - Energy Probe Nomination to Working Group

In its letter of March 23, the OEB invited interested stakeholders with relevant experience and qualifications to nominate themselves or a third party to participate on the Future Energy Innovation Working Group (FEI WG).

Energy Probe Research Foundation (Energy Probe) nominates Tom Ladanyi, P. Eng., President, TL Energy Regulatory Consultants Inc. to the FEI WG. Mr. Ladanyi has over 46 years of experience in energy industry working for gas and electricity utilities and ratepayers. He has testified in hearings before the National Energy Board, the Ontario Energy Board, and the New York State Public Service Commission. As utility case manager or intervenor representative Mr. Ladanyi participated in more than one hundred OEB proceedings and consultations including the Utility Remuneration (EB-2018-0287) and Responding to Distributed Energy Resources (EB-2018-0288) consultation. His contact information is below.

ratepayers by eliminating cross subsidies between ratepayer classes and between generations of ratepayers. It promotes sustainable resource use through individual responsibility and accountability. Energy Probe argues for the break-up of unnatural monopolies, created by political or regulatory decree. Where natural monopolies exist, Energy Probe advocates for regulation that is mandated to protect the interests of consumers.
